Submitted application for renewal, does not look promising. We will go through the process. Feedback was that all work going on is great, but data from past three years will be used in decision

January 11th meeting to discuss , final decision will be made in March Complaint filed for lack of IAP plan. School worked with teen and solution accepted.

Now, processes in place to ensure it doesn't happen again

There are 3 or 4 candidates interested in joining board. We will get in early 2016

Christopher Kunney announced this is his last month as Chair and member of the governing board. He is confident that he is leaving Ivy in great hands with leadership and board members. He will assist with the transition to help new Chairs. He is grateful for being allowed to serve.
