

Ivy Prep Gwinnett PTSA Wins Georgia PTA District 12 Local Unit of the Year

The Ivy Prep Gwinnett PTSA has been recognized as the Georgia PTA District 12 Local Unit of the Year for their engagement and advocacy work. Schools, school leaders and parents are recognized annually based on their achievements that are reviewed by a panel of judges. Katrina Brown and Nina Gilbert serve as co-presidents for the 2017-18 school year. Donica Paasewe (Vice President of Programs), Jazzmin Baldwin (Vice President of Membership), Veronica Hardaway (Corresponding Secretary), and Kenyada Bryant (Treasurer) also helped with engagement and advocacy efforts that resulted in the award.

Like most schools across the nation, the PTSA at Ivy Prep Gwinnett promotes educational success and family engagement. Members engage with other parents and teachers to discuss issues, share ideas, voice concerns, facilitate programs and celebrate students. PTSA members advise parents that by getting involved at their child's or children's school, they become part of the solution, helping make positive changes and fostering student success.

Congratulations PTSA at Ivy Prep Gwinnett!
